FRESH LINES

a symposium by postgraduates, for postgraduates

The Griffith Centre for Social and Cultural Research in collaboration with the School of Humanities, Languages and Social Science are hosting Griffith's Eighth Annual Cultural Research Postgraduate Symposium.

We are seeking papers on a wide range of topics. The one day symposium will feature Professor Chris Gibson, University of Wollongong, as keynote speaker, as well as multiple themed sessions where students present papers in progress based on their PhD research. There is no cost associated with attending the symposium.

Abstracts should be submitted by October 3 2016 and should not exceed 200 words. Please email abstracts to freshlinesresearch@gmail.com in a standard .doc/docx format. Successful contributors will be notified by email.
